Three Springs Community Fund Kick-Started by Donation of Councillors Fees

At the 20 May 2020 Three Springs Ordinary Council Meeting, a resolution was passed that “the Elected Members of the Shire of Three Springs have unanimously decided to reduce their Fees and Allowances for 2020-21 by 26%, due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The reduction in Fees and Allowances is to support the local community in a very challenging time.

“This initiative highlights strong leadership and commitment from the Elected Members to support the community of Three Springs in a very challenging and unprecedented time.

“All Elected Members should be recognised for their forward thinking in making hard decisions to support their constituents. This demonstrates the Civic Leadership that is part of the Shire of Three Springs Strategic Community Plan.

“The initiative to reduce Fees and Allowances will yield $15,000. The savings will be transferred to the Three Springs Community Fund in the 2020-2021 Budget, which will be available for the local community via a grant process, and will be used for local projects. Shire will contribute more funds in each years’ budget to build a stronger and bigger Community Fund.”

It is currently anticipated that there will be two rounds released each financial year. The application process and guidelines are currently being developed and will be released in 2020-21.

What (if any) social gathering and venue restrictions have been lifted?

The easing of restrictions will allow for indoor and outdoor gatherings of up to 20 people at any one time in public places.

Restaurants and cafés (including in pubs, bars, hotels, the casino and community clubs), are permitted to open for table service meals where there is 4 square metres of floor space per patron in the dining area, up to a maximum of 20 seated patrons at any one time. Alcohol can only be served as ancillary to a meal. All patrons are encouraged to practice social distancing and good personal hygiene at all times.

Do I still need to social distance when I go out?

Yes, you should always practice social distancing when you go out. It is recommended that you keep 1.5m away from others where possible and maintain good personal hygiene.

People should be aware that transmission of the virus is still possible and they should not become complacent with their social distancing and personal hygiene.

TO THE HOUSEHOLDER

The Shire of Three Springs is changing contractors for the household and business rubbish collection.

The new collection day, starting 18 May is Monday mornings. Please put your bins out on Sunday evenings.

More Rental Homes Go To Pot

It's every landlord's worst nightmare – receiving a call from the police with the news their investment property has been turned into a hydroponic cannabis farm.

Unfortunately that's the reality for a growing number of Western Australian landlords recently, following further raids by the Organised Crime Squad, which continues investigating networks of Vietnamese crime gangs posing as tenants to use rental homes for this purpose. Several of these homes were based in Geraldton.

Private landlords advertising through classified sites such as Gumtree are most often targeted, as they are believed to be less likely to carry out stringent checks on prospective tenants and be less suspicious of a large upfront cash payment to cover rent.

Driver's licences provided as identification are either stolen or fake, while references supplied by the applicants are usually other gang members posing as employers or previous landlords.

These grow-houses can have a devastating financial impact– aside from the damage and clean-up bills, affected landlords also suffer the loss of rental income while the home is being repaired.

Then there is the risk of fire and electrocution to the occupants and neighbours, as these operations combine a watering system with electricity bypassed from the meter to create a new electrical system to power the hydroponics.

Stay vigilant by knowing the signs:

- Cash rentals paid several months in advance;
- A large number of people frequently coming to the house for two to three hours at a time;
- Humming or bright lights coming from the house at night;
- Windows constantly covered; and
- Evidence of tampering with power or meter boxes.

If landlords choose not to go through a real estate agent or property manager, they need to do thorough checks on applicants and carry out a property inspection soon after they move in and at regular intervals up to the maximum of four inspections a year that are allowed.

Anyone who believes a property is being used for illegal purposes should call Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000 or make a report online at www.crimestopperswa.com.au. Callers may remain anonymous.

Enquiries about what landlords can do under tenancy laws can be made to Consumer Protection by email consumer@dmirs.wa.gov.au or by calling 1300 30 40 54.

Consumer Protection: COVID-19 coronavirus

The COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic has created disruption and confusion in our community. Holidaymakers have had to cancel trips and may be unsure when they can reschedule depending on the destination. Ticketed events have been cancelled and people have had to postpone weddings. Many tenants cannot afford to pay rent.

Western Australians have contacted Consumer Protection with numerous enquiries. To help, a list of COVID-19 Coronavirus Consumer Protection Frequently Asked Questions has been created and is being regularly updated. For information specifically about tenancy see Residential tenancies - COVID-19 response and Commercial tenancies - COVID-19 response.

Consumer Protection encourages the WA community to read this helpful information for the latest and we ask you to help us spread the word through your networks and via your existing communication channels.

COVIDSafe app GET THE APP

The COVIDSafe app speeds up contacting people exposed to coronavirus (COVID-19). This helps us support and protect you, your friends and family. Please read the content on this page before downloading.

About the app

The COVIDSafe app is part of our work to slow the spread of COVID-19. Having confidence we can find and contain outbreaks quickly will mean governments can ease restrictions while still keeping Australians safe.

The new COVIDSafe app is completely voluntary. Downloading the app is something you can do to protect you, your family and friends and save the lives of other Australians. The more Australians connect to the COVIDSafe app, the quicker we can find the virus.

Information about COVID-19 and the COVIDSafe app is available in 63 languages on the Department of Home Affairs website.

The privacy policy is also available in languages other than English. What COVIDSafe is for

The COVIDSafe app helps find close contacts of COVID-19 cases. The app helps state and territory health officials to quickly contact people who may have been exposed to COVID-19.

The COVIDSafe app speeds up the current manual process of finding people who have been in close contact with someone with COVID-19. This means you'll be contacted more quickly if you are at risk. This reduces the chances of you passing on the virus to your family, friends and other people in the community.

State and territory health officials can only access app information if someone tests positive and agrees to the information in their phone being uploaded. The health officials can only use the app information to help alert those who may need to quarantine or get tested.

The COVIDSafe app is the only contact trace app approved by the Australian Government.

COVIDSafe recognises other devices with the COVIDSafe app installed and Bluetooth® enabled. When the app recognises another user, it notes the date, time, distance and duration of the contact and the other user's reference code. The COVIDSafe app does not collect your location.

To be effective, you should have the COVIDSafe app running as you go about your daily business and come into contact with people. Users will receive daily notifications to ensure the COVIDSafe app is running.

The information is encrypted and that encrypted identifier is stored securely on your phone. Not even you can access it. The contact information stored in people's mobiles is deleted on a 21-day rolling cycle. This period takes into account the COVID-19 incubation period and the time it takes to get tested. For more, see Privacy.

How COVIDSafe works

When you download the app you provide your name, mobile number, and postcode and select your age range (see Privacy). You will receive a confirmation text message to complete installation. The system then creates a unique encrypted reference code just for you.

When an app user tests positive for COVID-19

When someone is diagnosed with COVID-19, state and territory health officials will ask them or their parent/guardian who they have been in contact with. If they have the COVIDSafe app and provide their permission, the encrypted contact information from the app will be uploaded to a highly secure information storage system. State and territory health officials will then:

- use the contacts captured by the app to support their usual contact tracing
- call people to let them or their parent/guardian know they may have been exposed
- offer advice on next steps, including:
 - what to look out for
 - when, how and where to get tested
 - what to do to protect friends and family from exposure

Health officials will not name the person who was infected.

After the pandemic

At the end of the Australian COVID-19 pandemic, users will be prompted to delete the COVIDSafe app from their phone. This will delete all app information on a person's phone. The information contained in the information storage system will also be destroyed at the end of the pandemic.

Deleting the COVIDSafe app

You can delete the COVIDSafe app from your phone at any time. This will delete all COVIDSafe app information from your phone. The information in the secure information storage system will not be deleted immediately. It will be destroyed at the end of the pandemic. If you would like your information deleted from the storage system sooner, you can complete our request data deletion form.

Privacy

Your information and privacy is strictly protected. Read the COVIDSafe Privacy Policy for details on how personal information collected in the app is handled.

The privacy policy is available in languages other than English.

The Health Minister has issued a Determination under the Biosecurity Act to protect people's privacy and restrict access to information from the app. State and territory health authorities can access the information for contact tracing only. The only other access will be by the COVIDSafe Administrator to ensure the proper functioning, integrity and security of COVIDSafe, including to delete your registration information at your request. It will be a criminal offence to use any app data in any other way. The COVIDSafe app cannot be used to enforce quarantine or isolation restrictions, or any other laws.

A Privacy Impact Assessment was commissioned to ensure that privacy risks have been addressed. See the Privacy Impact Assessment Report and our Agency Response.

The Australian Government has developed draft legislation to support the COVIDSafe app and ensure users' privacy is protected. See the exposure draft of the Privacy Amendment \(Public Health Contact Information\) Bill 2020.

We had some great news last week with the State Government reducing Covid-19 restrictions permitting the return of football training albeit under strict conditions.

Since this announcement The Three Springs Bombers Football Committee has been working hard behind the scenes ensuring our immediate and ongoing compliance with all restrictions permitting our return to training.

I'm pleased to announce that training will return at 5.30pm on Tuesday the 26th of May 2020 and followed by every Tuesday and Thursday at the same time. There are a number of social distancing and other conditions in place that differ to the AFL competition but we will discuss and explain these on the night.

It is still unclear when or if we will return to playing this season in the North Midlands Football League, but it's a great opportunity to get back on the track, build some fitness, sharpen our skills but most importantly have some fun.

Don't be too concerned if your fitness has fallen away a tad since the Covid-19 restrictions as we will be easing back into things and we will accommodate all fitness levels.

Also please bring down your own water bottle to training and finally be sure to check out this fortnight's player profile, the ever-green goal kicking machine, Brad Taylor.
